GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination Permit for Computer-Based Testing:

Upon approval of an examination application, the applicant will receive an examination permit by email. The emailed permit will include a link to an online scheduling portal for the applicant to schedule the exam at the computer-based testing location of choice. The computer-based testing agency will send a follow-up email to the applicant confirming the exam site, date, and time that the applicant has chosen. If the applicant does not receive an examination permit by email within 7 days prior to the testing month, notify C-NET by calling 800-463-0786.

The examination permit will remain active for a period of 30 days. The applicant must test within the 30-day window printed on the permit. If the applicant does not test by the end of the 30-day window, both the examination permit and exam application will expire. The applicant must then submit a new application and fee for the exam before being allowed to test.

SPECIAL DISABILITY ARRANGEMENTS

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, C-NET will provide special exam accommodations for any certification candidate with documentation of a diagnosed disability.

There are several steps to this process. They must be completed as described to receive special accommodation(s) for a certification exam.

1. When completing the application for the certification exam you are applying for, enter “Testing Accommodation” in the space provided for “Exam Site” on page 1 of the application. As most accommodations require separate rooms, there is not a publicly listed exam date for you to request.

2. Please mail the application at least 10 weeks before you wish to sit for the exam. Submit your completed application with payment to:

   Special Testing Department-Nursing
   C-NET
   35 Journal Square, Suite 901
   Jersey City, NJ 07306

Once your application is determined to be complete and eligible for the certification exam, we will contact you and forward the necessary documentation to begin the accommodation coordination process.

NOTIFICATION OF EXAMINATION SCORES

A total score of approximately 75% is required to pass the certification examination. Candidates will receive their exam scores by mail approximately 4-6 weeks after test administration. C-NET will forward all examination scores to the candidate as follows:

PASSING CANDIDATES WILL RECEIVE A CERTIFICATE IN THE MAIL FROM THE DNCB APPROXIMATELY 6-8 WEEKS AFTER SCORE NOTIFICATION.
CONFIDENTIALITY OF EXAMINATION

To insure the security of the examination, the test materials are confidential and will not be released to any person or agency. Also, information about a candidate’s individual test results will be released only to the candidate, upon written request.

DESIGNATION OF CERTIFICATION

Certification is awarded to those who successfully complete the certification process by meeting the eligibility criteria and passing a written multiple choice examination. The designated credential is Dermatology Nurse Certified (DNC). This credential (DNC) may be used in all correspondence or professional relations.

Certification in Dermatology nursing is valid for a period of three (3) years. Recertification is available by examination or by continuing education. Certified dermatology nurses will be sent application forms for recertification approximately six (6) months in advance of the expiration of their certification.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to notify the DNCB of any change in address. Questions related to the certification program should be directed to the DNCB President at the following address:

RIGHT OF APPEAL

A candidate who has been deferred, failed, or had their certification revoked has the right of appeal. This appeal must be submitted in writing to the President of the Dermatology Nursing Certification Board within three (3) months of notification. The appeal shall state specific reasons why the candidate feels entitled to certification.

At the candidate’s request and expense, the DNCB shall appoint an Appeals Committee of three (3) certified dermatology nurses who will meet with the candidate and make recommendations to the DNCB. The Appeals Committee will meet in conjunction with a regularly scheduled DNCB meeting. The final decision of the DNCB will be communicated in writing to the candidate within one month of the DNCB meeting. Failure of the candidate to request an appeal or appear before the Appeals Committee shall constitute a waiver of the candidate’s right of appeal.
EXAMINATION DESCRIPTION

The Dermatology Nursing certification examination is based on a job analysis of dermatology nursing practice. The job analysis and the examination were developed with the assistance of the Center for Nursing Education and Testing (C-NET). The test consists of 175 multiple choice items, written within the framework of the nursing process. The examination is approximately 4 hours in length. The exam objectives are as follows:

Objectives of the Examination

The Dermatology Nursing Certification examination is designed to measure the nurse’s ability to:

- Assess and monitor the status of patients with dermatologic disorders before, during, and after treatment. (30%)
- Plan, administer (or assist others to administer), and monitor the medical, surgical, and phototherapeutic interventions for patients with dermatologic disorders. (30%)
- Select appropriate strategies to meet the educational, health promotion, and psycho-socio-cultural needs of dermatology patients, their significant others, and the community. (29%)
- Coordinate care to ensure safe, efficient delivery of high-quality dermatology care, in collaboration with other health care providers and community resources. (11%)

Exam content with corresponding percentages can be found under Exam Information online.

Certification granted by the DNBC is pursuant to a voluntary procedure intended solely to test for special knowledge. The DNBC does not purport to license, to confer a right to privilege upon, nor otherwise to define the qualifications of any person for nursing practice. The significance of certification in any jurisdiction or institution is the responsibility of the candidate to determine. The candidate should contact the appropriate state board of nursing or institution in order to determine practice implications.
